National Indigenous Day 2018, Soaring Eagle Awards

The National Indigenous Day Committee is committed to celebrating our Indigenous Ancestry in the City of Thompson on June 21, 2018. The committee continues to build and strengthen partnerships between First Nation, Metis and non-First Nation organizations to recognize and acknowledge the culture and the contributions made to Canada.

The National Indigenous Day committee is accepting nominations for the 2018 National Indigenous Day Soaring Eagle Awards.

NIDSEA will recognize the achievements of youth (Elementary K - 8) & (High school 9 - 12) who exhibit character, commitment, competence or confidence in their activities that impact the Indigenous community and the community of Thompson. NIDSEA will recognize one individual within the three categories:

Elementary Grades K – 8:

- 1) Community Volunteer Award
- 1) Cultural Award
- 2) Outstanding Student Award

High school Grades 9 – 12:

- 1) Community Volunteer Award
- 1) Cultural Award
- 2) Outstanding Student Award

Those individuals selected to receive a Soaring Eagle Award will be asked to join us in their recognition at the National Indigenous Day Celebrations taking place at McLean Park in Thompson, MB. Deadline for nominations is Monday, June 11, 2018 at 4:30 pm.

Submit application nominations via letter describing the participant to:
