CAREER OPPORTUNITY

Health Director

Do you see the need for betterment in the Health of First Nations people? Are you looking for a career that will truly make a difference for the SCO First Nations communities? Does the idea of working in policy, advocacy, government and politics excite you? If this sounds like you then keep reading this opportunity we have open at SCO.

A little bit of who we are and what we offer:

- Southern Chiefs' Organization (SCO) represents 34 southern First Nations in Manitoba;
- We foster a work environment that supports young talented staff to grow and develop. Innovative thinking is encouraged;
- Full and comprehensive benefits package including 5% matched pension contribution;
- Free parking and monthly staff lunches;

If this sounds great so far, then keep reading for further details about the position:

- The Health Director will lead the health files that SCO is mandated to fulfill. As well as participate as an active member of the SCO Senior Management Team;
- The candidate should have prior management experience, and the ability to work collaboratively with both internal employees and external stakeholders;
- Excellent communications skills, especially via written format. Prior experience in grant and proposal writing is also preferred;
- Knowledge of the issues surrounding First Nations health. Along with the ability to examine, analyze and make recommendations on health legislation, regulations and policy;
- Post-secondary education in Social Services, Native Studies or Health preferred along with a minimum of 5 years related experience.

If you feel this position speaks to you then please submit a cover letter, resume and salary expectations to the attention of:
