Duties:What you will do:

As an EIA Case Counsellor, you are a part of a larger social services team of health, education, training and employment professionals who work in partnership to help Manitobans maximize independence, autonomy and quality of life. The work environment is fast-paced and dynamic. You will be assisting participants, meeting with them in person and on the phone, hearing their stories, assessing their needs, providing counselling and connecting them with resources. Oftentimes, they may be experiencing physical, emotional and/or mental health issues, and have other stressors impacting their day. This can make for challenging situations, but you will also find reward in helping participants move forward in their lives.

You will work with EIA participants to plan for success, developing and implementing recommendations based on your knowledge and interpretation of program legislation and policy. You work within an integrated cross-departmental case management system and are an active member in planning and coordinating integrated services that strive to find the right solutions for participants and their families.

Who you are:

- You have strong interpersonal communication skills and you interact with people with dignity, respect, objectivity and the desire to actively listen and learn.
- You are a great listener, you can articulate clearly and you understand the importance of looking beyond what is at the surface, and you can maintain flexibility in your approach and planning with participants and their families.
- You are open to collaborating with your co-workers and others to better meet the needs of your participants. You are also adaptable to changes in workload, policies and procedures.
- You are comfortable with technology, using multiple computer and business programs.

What we offer:

- A career in a helping and caring profession with the ability to make a profound and lasting impact in the lives of people
- A positive work environment where you can build successful and long-lasting professional relationships with co-workers who will share their knowledge and expertise with you
- Every day is different with variety in tasks and challenges
- Training from orientation to on-going professional development within EIA that will give you the tools you need to be successful
- The Manitoba government has a comprehensive compensation and benefits package, which includes extended health care, health spending account, dental care, vision care, long-term disability insurance, group life insurance, maternity/paternity leave, family related leave and a defined pension plan.
- Training and career development opportunities are also available for employees.
