Primary Responsibilities:

- Setup and update shelving, displays, walls, etc. according to the planogram and instructions provided
- Plan and schedule store visits within assigned territory
- Communicate work schedule to support team members, when required
- Attend mandatory training, both online training and field training as required
- Create and develop strong working relationships with key in-store contacts
- Complete all shift reporting, including daily reports which will include photographs of completed asks. This reporting is completed online.

Be able to communicate and execute a variety of calls with stores. eg: Shoppers Drug Mart, Walmart, Best Buy, Home Depot, etc.

Qualifications - External

Qualifications:

- Relevant merchandising experience (preferred but not essential)
- Strong attention to detail, specifically understanding and executing changes to a planogram
- Strong organizational skills, with the ability to multi task, and meet deadlines.
- Energetic, self-motivated and enthusiastic
- Flexible and adaptable
- Strong communication skills (written and oral)

Other Requirements:

- Ability to work Monday-Friday 9:00am-5:00pm time frame
- Valid driver's license, access to the exclusive use of a reliable vehicle.
- Must be comfortable travelling from your region
- Computer savvy with access to a mobile device and internet, and the ability to take and submit photos of your work.
